SUBJECT: Courtesy Copy of Skin Sensitization Results per a recent 6 (a) (2) Filing
Briskway (EPA Reg. No. 100-1433), Albi Flora (EPA Reg. No. 100-1506),
Quadris® Top Fungicides (EPA Reg. No. 100-1313)

Dear Ms. Balan and Ms. Joyner:

Syngenta Crop Protection, LLC, is submitting a courtesy copy of a skin sensitization test that it recently reported as a reportable finding under 6 (a)(2) for the formulation used in the Briskway, Albi Flora and Quadris Top Fungicide products (EPA Reg. Nos. 100-1433, 100-1506 and 100-1313). Since this is a courtesy copy of the study report, Syngenta is not asking any action be taken by the EPA.

In the submitted Hypersensitivity Study (Buhler Test), in Albino Guinea Pigs with Azoxystrobin/Difenoconazole 200/125G/L, SC Formulation A13703G, there was a positive finding for skin sensitization. Syngenta had previously submitted a similar study on the same formulation, A13703G, using the Buhler test (200/125 G/L; 2006), which showed negative results as a skin sensitizer (MRID No. 47378108). Because this is a courtesy copy of the study report, Syngenta is not requesting any action to be taken at this time by the Agency.

Enclosed in support of this submission are the following documents:

- (1) Transmittal Document
- Azoxystrobin/Difenoconazole 200/125G/L SC Formulation (A13703G) – Contact Hypersensitivity in Albino Guinea Pigs, Böhler Test; Syngenta Report No. TK0370868
- Copy of 6(a) (2) letter sent to EPA July 6, 2017

Fees for Services

This is a courtesy copy of a report that has no PRIA action tied to it, and therefore, no PRIA fee is required per the Pesticide Registration Improvement Renewal Act (PRIA III) of 2012.

If there are any questions concerning matters contained in this submission, please do not hesitate to contact me at either 336-632-7477 or by email at adora.clark@syngenta.com. Also, you may contact my regulatory assistant Stephanie at 336-632-5970 or by email at stephanie.cole@syngenta.com

Sincerely,
